Established in 1899 (around the 24th year of the reign of the emperor), Fu Tang Bakery, which used to call "Kuang Fu Hsiang Bakery", is an old pastry store with 112 years history. Its signature products are traditional meat pastry and belly button pastry, both of which have one hundred years of history in Hakka tradition.

The delicate handmade pastry and the traditional taste, passed down from generation to generation, fully presents the unsophisticated spirits of Hakka culture. Fu Tang Bakery insists on the handmade convention to preserve and serve its customers with the authentic taste.
